THE HUNTER PHILOSOPHY

Since 1980, Hunter Soccer Club has provided a soccer camp program to the surrounding communities. Over those 30 years, the Hunter Player Development camp has gained a reputation for its excellence of instruction. We do this through our simple philosophy: "success for all players". Regardless of age or skill level, we are committed to total player development. To maximize this development it is important that players experience enjoyment. Enjoyment within our camp is ensured through our carefully selected, highly qualified, well-motivated professional coaching staff.

PROGRAM DETAILS

The objective of our program is the development of confidence and satisfaction that comes from playing with skill. Our curriculum has been carefully designed to challenge players of all ages and skills. The camp staff conducts a series of adaptive and progressive activities to meet the specific needs of each player. Total player involvement is the key element in our training program. This involvement is achieved through maximized ball contact. Our staff will challenge the younger players by providing new fun-filled activities on a frequent basis, while older players will utilize their developing skills in controlled small sided games.

The camp is designed to introduce soccer to the beginning player and to strengthen the fundamentals of the intermediate player. The sessions focus on individual ball skills and the Coerver dribbling techniques, with emphasis on having fun and developing an awareness of proper touch and technique. The training methods highlight individual strengths and techniques, with an emphasis on developing technical speed. This is practiced using 1 v 1, and small group drills. Team tactics are demonstrated and practiced under pressure. Each session wraps up with an accent on match play and learning under match conditions.
